

Presentation of ongoing activities

- Systematic follow-up of the routines for documentation
- Child coordinator and child ombudsmens responsibility
- Support to parents and children

Systematic follow up

-The use of the right search term in the patients journal.
(Nurses and doctors)

Child coordinator

- Together with the head nurse ensure that all units have child ombudsmen
- Individual contact with all child ombudsmen
- Organize meetings for the child ombudsmen twice a year
- Attend to workplace meeting or similar
- Update information and provide material
- Spread the routines within the Department
- Support children and parents

Children´ s ombudsmen

- Every unit should have at least one child ombudsman, nurse or assistant nurse
- Responsible for the information binder "remember me"
- Make sure that children to patients are noted
- Establish a child friendly environment
- Attend meetings for child ombudsmen

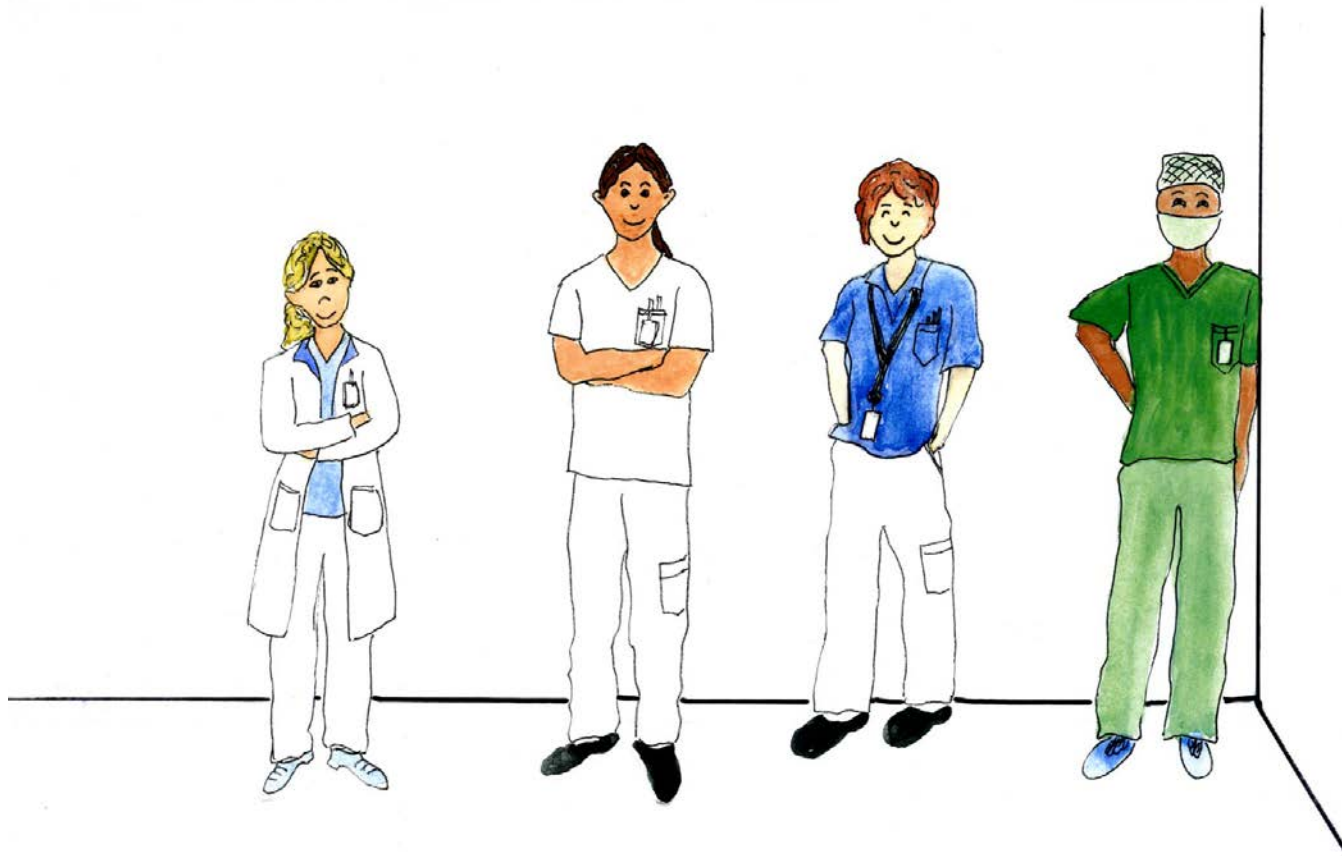

Support for parents and children

- Inform patients about their children's rights and available support
- Hand out information material to patient (children and illness, My book)
- Support at responsible unit
- Patients remitted to the unit for counseling and support

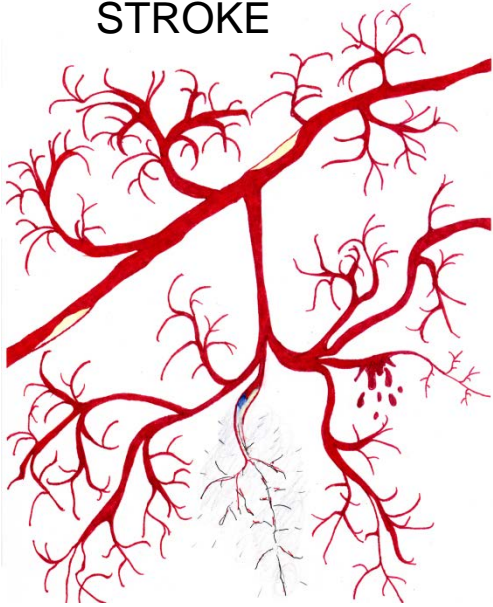

Methods

- Support to parents (Lets talk about the children)
- Support to children (BRA)
- Support to the family (Beardslee´ s family intervention)

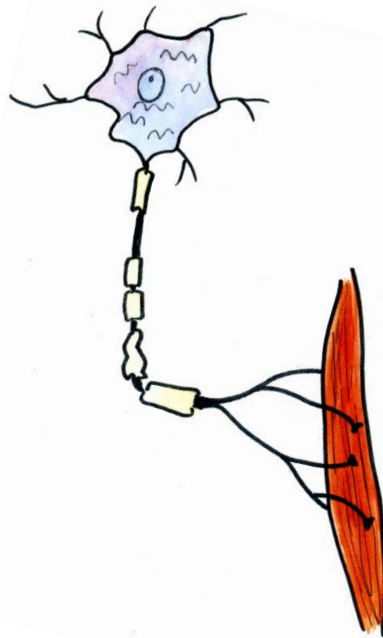

Information material to children about neurological diagnoses

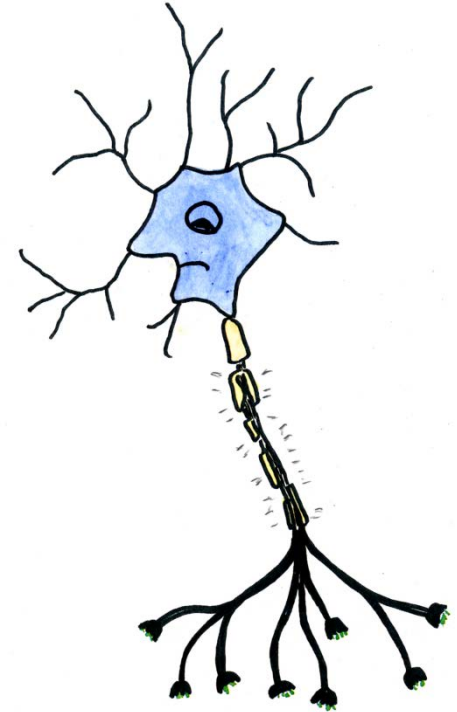

STROKE

ALS

MS

Tack!

karolina.meijer@sll.se